Durham, N. C., beside a host of friends and other relatives. Mr. Crew was a Richmond man in every sense of the word. He was born in this city October 29, 1856, and spent his entire life within its bounds, and gained his education in her public schools. After leaving school he entered what was then known as the Whitlock Branch of the American Tobacco Company, where he spent twenty years only changing his position when that business was dissolved by act of Congress, having given entire satisfaction to management of that branch of the business. Being forced out of the tobacco business, he secured a position with the Eclipse

TRUSTEES AUCTION SALE OF "WHITE MARSH,"

"WHITE MARSH."

The handsomest Cotonial estate in Eastern Virginia, containing 1,729 acres, more or less, situated in Gloucester County, on salt water. The mansion, while perhaps 200 years old, is large and roomy, has modern improvements, and is located on an elevation overlooking almost the entire plantation, and is surrounded by a remarkably handsome grove of trees of many varieties. Nearly every kind of outbuilding, such as cattle barns, horse barns, granary, hay barns, carriage-houses, smokehouse, piggery, silos, laborers' and managers' homes, etc., all in good condition. Marl exists in unlimited quantities, and the land is unusually fertile. For generations "White Marsh" has been celebrated, not only as one of the finest old aristocratic Colonial homes in Virginia, but as one of the most fertile farms as well. Oyster shore attached to place.
